House of Apparel Supply Chain Solutions

ABOUT US

PROMOTER TECH LTD.

Promoter Tech Limited is a renowned Apparel & Fashion supply chain with two of our own manufacturing units, associated factories, and sourcing facilities. We ensure compliance with ethical and environmental regulations in our factories and maintain several certifications, including BSCI, SEDEX, WRAP, Oeko-Tex, Higg Index, BCI, and GOTS, etc.

Our range of apparel categories for international buyers includes sweaters, knitwear, woven garments, lingerie, and workwear. Our capabilities span the entire production process, from sourcing raw materials to delivering finished products to our clients' warehouses.

We can deliver excellent quality, reliability, competitive pricing, and timely delivery to our clients. Our infrastructure is superior, allowing us to accommodate your sourcing needs for apparel at any desired volume from our factories.

We ensure that all of our apparel is produced under lawful, ethical, and humane conditions and we have a strict policy against the use of child labor at any stage of the production process. Promoter Tech Limited participates in regular social work and has incorporated CSR into its business model.
